LORD SALISBURY'S LUCK AND THE IRISH ROW-

ANOTHER SOCIETY SCANDAL. [BY THE COMMERCIAL CABLE TO THE HERALD,]

The Herald's European edition publishes to-day the following, dated LONDON, Feb. 21, 1891.-Lord Sailsbury's luck must begin to surprise himself. His critics and opponents are vanishing from the field.

Gladstone remains in London, but I understand his attendance in Parliament will be fitful. "We shall not be able to do anything against the Ministry this session," he remarked to a friend of mine the other day. "There is no weak position open and our forces are too much scattered. Something may occur. At present we can only wait and look ou." Yet the Grand Old Man continues in buoyant spirits and is the life of every dinner party or social gathering. His lieutenants are less cheerful, Morley being in the dumps and Harcourt surly and disgusted.

Another sign of hostilities by both sections of the Irish party is that their weapons are turned against each other. Parnell will not be much will have their hands full in following his steps in Ireland. Thus the Ministry is left to jog along without impediment. Even Lord Ran dolph Churchill sees no opening for the part of the "candid friend." He means to go back to his amusements, leaving politics to shift for

All attempts to injure the Mmistry on accout of the baccarat scandal break down, the War Secretary having done the right thing. Beyond that the government has nothing to do with the matter.

A subordinate and rather foolish member of the Ministry has been getting himself into trouble with a lady of society, but his downfall, should it come, will be a relief rather than otherwise to Lord Salisbury. The lady belongs to a distinguished family, who keenly feel the disgrace of this vulgar intrigue. At present attempts are being made to hush up the affair, but the injured husband talks loudly of a divorce suit-though he was caught in a similar mess not very long ago. These incidents cause much talk and deepen the prejudiees of the democracy against what are called "the upper classes." A storm is brewing which before long may astonish many who think the

IBELAND AND THE IRISH.

The English press has divided the Irish party into three divisions-Parcellites, anti-Parnellites (or patriots) and nationalists, the last division consists of O'Brien and Dillon. There seems to be a general impression that O'Brien will join Parnell's forces after serving his time. Dillon will take the other side. With Dillon at the nead of the patriots Parnell will no longer l ave smooth sailing. THEATRICALS. Coghlan's comedy, "Lady Barter," will be produced at the Princess' on the 28th.

Ibsen's four act drama 'Rosmershelm" will be produced at the Vaudeville at a matinée Monday. I have read it and consider it hopelessly dull. Miss Loie Fuller will produce a new play, "Zephyr," and a comedicta, "Two or One," at the Avenue Theatre March 3. Mrs. Bernard Wishaw is the author of both pieces. "Monte Christo" has been a flat failure. As a drawing card at the Avenue melodrama would not go down.

At the home of burlesque Manager Lee expects to produce Howard's "Heurietta" in about a month. The cast as it stands contains Vernon, York Stephens, John Shine, Lee, Lewis Waller and Fanny Brough. Jack Mason will make his London debut in "The Idler," at the St. James Theatre, now under the management of George Alexander.

THE MIDNIGHT FUNERAL.

In Cromwell's time a member of the Dyott family willed that he should be buried at midnight. Since then every member of the family has been buried at that hour. These funerals always attract great crowds. In this respect the funeral of Colonel Richard Dyott, who represented Lichfield in Parhament fifteen years. breaks the record. He was buried in the family vault in St. Mary's Church, Lichfield. The hearse containing the coffin was attended by twenty terch bearers, and at a late hour the cortége started from Freeford Hall at a slow pace, the funeral party moving through the city, the streets of which were crowded. It is estimated that fifteen thousand people witnessed

On arriving at the church the hearse was met by the Mayor and Corporation, who attended in state, headed by the town erier and pallbearers. The funeral service was read by Archdeacon Scott. During the ceremony a scene of wild excitement prevailed. The public houses in the district had been granted on extra hour's extension for the occasion.

Directly the coffin was conveyed into the church there was a rush by thousands to gain admittance. Forty police endeavored to keep back the surging crowd, and for some time intense excitement prevailed. Eventually the doors of the edifice were closed in order to prevent the place being stormed. In the meliceone of the police inspectors had his finger nearly in Parliament this side of Easter. The mutineers | biffen off. It was long after midnight ere the crowd dispersed.

[BY THE COMMERCIAL CABLE TO THE HERALD.]

HERALD BUREAU, No. 49 AVENUE DE L'OPERA, Paris, Feb. 21, 1891.

The HERALD's European edition publishes to-day the following:-We had a splendid week as regards weather, but Paris is very empty. The arrival of Empress Frederick of Germany was the great event of the week. It was a coincidence that Empress Eugénie arrived just at the time which had been announced as that for the arrival of the Empress Frederick, who did not arrive until five hours later. Consequently she found herself surrounded by a crowd of reporters and other people and was presented by a lady with a huge bouquet of violets intended for the Empress

Their canvases will be conveyed to and fro free of expense, and if a sufficient number expose a special room will be assigned to them.

PIVAL CONSUMPTION CURES. Koch's prestige is below par here. The lymph is considered a rank poison. Physicians won't were incentated.

Meanwhile Professor Liebrich, director of the the life time of Leo XIII. Royal Pharmacological Institute of Berlin, discovers an entirely different remedy for consumption, which he gives to the world first through the HERALD. Conversing with a HERALD correspondent, he said:-"It is not an improvefor ten days. He tells me that in the Westport remedy, based on my researches for years. Medical men here are rather sceptical about receiving a new discovery. The disappointment of the Koch flasco naturally makes them so. Though Professor Liebrich enjoys a high reputation they are suspending judgment until they know the particulars. It goes without saying that the wild excitement of some months ago will not be repeated, especially as the Pro. fessor will make his discovery public.

GREAT EGYPTIAN VICTORY.

OSMAN DIGMA'S DERVIEHES DEFEATED AT TOKAR

WITH TERRIBLE SLAUGHTER.

[BY CABLE TO THE HERALD.] AFAFITE, Egypt, via Suakim, Feb. 21, 1891 .- A 86 vere engagement was fought at Tokar on February 19 between the Egyptian troops who recently left El Teb and Osman Digma's forces. Nearly one thousand lives were lost in the battle which forlowed the appearance of the Egyptians at Tokar. The Egyptian: made their advance during the early dawn of the morning of Thursday last. The enemy was sighted near Tokar, and after an exchange of shots between the skirmishers of the enemy and the advance guard of the Egyptians the latter pushed forward through the brushwood surrounding Tokar and its neighborhood in order to seize the old government building, now little more than a tumbledown ruin, but which forms a strategic point where a force of infantry could hold out against heavy odds. The dervishes, seeing the object of the Egyptian advance in that direction, made a rush for the building and surrounded it by a compact mass of Arab riflemen, who poured a hot fire into the ranks of the advancing Egyptians. The latter, however, were not to be checked in their advance, returning the Arabs' fire as they advanced. The Egyptians fixed bayonets when within easy distance of the enemy and bravely charged upon the defenders of the old ruins.

HAND TO HAND PIGHTING. For over an hour a desperate hand to hand, bayonet to spear and sword fight followed, during which the Egyptian troops fought with the most determined bravery. Finally the Egyptian cavalry made a brilliant charge upon the dervishes, who retired in disorder, suffering a crushing defeat. The dervishes numbered at least 2,000 fighting men. About an equal force of Egyptians suc ceeded in reaching the shelter of the building beore the Arabs surrounded them for the attack After the retreat of the dervishes the troops found over seven hundred dead around the position mentioned, while large numbers of dead were lying in the bushes around the buildings. Nearly every Emir of importance who was present at the battle fell upon the field. Osman Digma did not take part in the fight but watched its progress from a point of vantage near Afafite. After seeing that his faithful followers had suffered a disastrous defeat Osman Digma, accompanied by about thirty horsemen fied toward Temrin. The Egyptians to-night bivouse at Afafite and will advance on Temrin to-

The losses upon the part of the Egyptians are Saptain Barrow and twelve men killed and Captain Beech and four Egyptian officers and forty-two men wounded. After leaving a force of troops to garrison Tokar the Egyptian troops marched direct to Afafite and ascended the hills recently occupied by the enomy. Afafite was found to have been vacated, though there were hundreds of Arabs in the vicinity. Those Arabs quietly surrendered to the Egyptians, handing over to their captors a number of banners. AN INSIGHT INTO THE OPPOSITION TO CARDI-NAL BAMPOLLA, THE POPE'S SECRETARY OF IBY CABLE TO THE HERALD.

ROME, Feb. 21, 1891,-For some time past strong pressure has been brought to bear upon the Pope o force the resignation of his Secretary of State. Cardinal Rampolla. The Pope, however, has declined to yield to this pressure, and it can now be stated on the highest authority that Cardinal Rampolla will remain in his present position, and that try it on human beings, but early in the week | he to-day enjoys the Pope's confidence to a greater two monkeys in the Jardin d'Acclimatation extent than ever before. The general impression in high ecclesiastical circles is that there will be no change in the office of Secretary of State during

THE OPPOSITION TO RAMPOLLA.

Three potent influences have been at work in Rome endeavoring to secure the retirement of Cardinal Rampolla-first, that of Germany; second, that of Russia, and finally, that of the so-called Roman party. Germany has always been bitter ment on Koch's lymph; it is entirely a different against the Pope's Premier on account of the latter's hatred of the triple alliance; for his sympathy with France, his enmity toward the Quirinal and there were only eight hundred tons of good | together. The only similarity between them is | for his increasing endeavers to revive the power of the Pope by his frequent diplomatic notes. fore the young German Emperor visited Rome two years ago the announcement of his intended visit vas accompanied by a private note delicately informing the Pope of His Majesty's antipathy to Cardinal Rampolla's views and hinting at the desirability of their being modified. But the hint was not taken by the Pope, and in spite of the undisguised efforts of Germany since that time to displace the Cardinal he is stronger with the Pope

Russia would also be pleased to see the retirement of the Cardinal. The St. Petersburg diplomats charge against him that he is inflexible upon the question of the introduction of the Bussian anguage in the Catholic liturgy of Poland. When negotiations to this end were begun Cardinal Rampolla at the outset took a firm stand against candidate for Secretary of State has been Cardinal Vannutelli. Cardinal Vannutelli assisted at the coronation of the present Czar, and on that occasion created a very favorable impression in St.

The third factor which has been working against Cardinal Rampolla is composed of the Roman adherents of Cardinal Vannutalli, and they have ties of Lowell have decided to send $1,170 99, conbeen periodically announcing the retirement of the tributions, to J. Rampolla's successor. They also said that the Pope had decided to place Cardinal Rampolla in the Propaganda to succeed Cardinal Simeoni, the present Prefect. Many of the newspapers having spoken of these impending changes, and the Pope, having seen the publications, His Holiness said to Cardinal Simeoni the other day :- "We regret, Signor Cardinal, that such reports have been circulated, as we have no intention of making the changes referred to."

So all these political intrigues have come to naught, and the Pope will not make the desired

OPERATIC AND THEATRICAL.

Sims Reeves in a New "Farewell" Appearance-Plans of Augustus Harris.

DRAMATIC AND LITERARY NOTES.

[BY CABLE TO THE HERALD.] London, Feb. 21, 1891 .- The Prince and Princess of Wales and a distinguished party of notables honored with their presence Charles Halle's or chestral concert, given last night at the special request of the Prince of Wales, after Halle had decided to terminate this celebrated series of concerts by his Manchester orchestra, owing to the paucity of support received from the music loving portion of London's population. The Prince of Wales' generous act of sympathy toward the popular planist has not tended to lessen the Prince's popularity. In this connection it will be remem bered that in 1857 Hallo instituted an annual series of twenty orchestral and choral concerts, which have taken place uninterruptedly since then and which have been considered one of the most im portant series in Europe. Upon the occasion of the Prince and Princess of Wales' attendance at the Halle concert a large and brilliant audience. as if responding to the magic of the royal presence, also attended the performance, which was greatly enjoyed and warmly applauded by all present. It is now possible that Halle may be induced to change his mind and continue the series, though he decreased attendance noted at many of the high class concerts, owing to the severe competition now going on in the musical world, is a fact which cannot be lost sight of and is a matter of great concern to entrepresentes.

Mr. Sims Reeves, the ever popular tener singer, now getting dangerously near his seventieth year of age, announces, not for the first time, his 'abcolutely final farewell" for May 11 next, when Nime. Christine Nilsson comes especially from Madrid to be present at the veteran tenor's "fare-Sims Reeves, it will be remembered, made his first appearance on the stage at Newcastle, England, in December, 1839, at which time he was sing ing baritone parts. Not long afterward he made his first appearance in Italian opera at La Scala, Milan, in the fenor part of Edgardo, in "Lucis di Lammermoor." His first original char acter was in Balfe's opera of the "Maid of Honor. Since that time Mr. Reeves has held the rank of first English tenor, and has appeared with extraordinary success at all the great performances of oratorios at Exater Hall, the provincial musical festivals and at the Crystal Palace.

After leaving the stage in May Mr. Reeves will devote himself to teaching singing. He already has many pupils.

AUGUSTUS BARBIS AND OTHER MANAGERS The opera season in this city commences as usual with the prospect that Mr. Augustus Harris will probably have the whole operatio field to himself. Mr. Harris, in his always enterprising manner, has already secured all the best artists procurable, including two Americans, the Misses Eames and Risey. Mr. Harris has been trying to secure Mme. Adelina Patti for a series of opera on the star system, but as yet, owing to the diva's strongly pronounced ideas upon the financial benefits sue must derive from her voice, the negotiations have not been successful.

Mr. Harris, after acquiring the lease of Her Majesty's Theatre and thus placing three of the largest London opera houses under his control, is known to be negotiating for the control of the Olympic Theatre, which Americans will remember as the scene of Mr. P. T. Barnum's triumph with his big winter show. The valuable costumes and illiantly beautiful" acenery of the successful London pantomime, "Beauty and the Beast," by Mr. William Yardiey, which Mr. Harris has been successfully engineering during the winter at the Drury Lane Theatre, have been purchased for reproduction in Paris. This is the pantomime which Mr. Harris advertises among his many other adverisements as follows:--

To Augustus Hannis, Esq., Drury Lane Theatre:—
We have examined the books and accounts of Drury Lane Theatre for the past ten years, and we certify that both the total receips of the first fifty performances to this date and the advance booking on account of "Benuty and the Beast" exceed the receipts of the corresponding time on account of any previous pantomime during the period.

(Signed).

Chartered Accountants.

Pantomime admirers here hope that the Paristan managers may have better luck with the costumes, &c., of "Beauty and the Beast" than certain American managers recently had with the costumes, &c., of another of Mr. Harris' pantomimes, "The Babes in the Wood." The French version of "Beauty and the Beast' will be by Hervé.

Mr. Augustin Daly, of New York, has purchased the American rights for Richard Henry's new play.

Mr. Syducy Grundy has dramatized the new novel, "Lady Delmar," by Thomas Ferrell and Miss White, which created quite a sensation. The Vandeville Theatre is rehearsing 'Diamond Dene," by an American, Mr. Dam. "The Henristta," an old New York favorise from Mr. Bronson Howard's pen, is billed for produc-tion on March 28 at the Avenue Theatre. The American colony of this city is already preparing to give "The Henrietta" a warm American welcome to the boards of a London theatre, and those who have seen the piece in the United States prediet that it will have a long run at the Avenue.

NOTES, LITERARY AND OTHERWISE. Messrs. Chatto & Windus, the London publishers, announce Mr. Robert Buchanan's new poem, "The Onteast," A book of verse by Mr. Walter Crane also appears shortly.

A new poem by Lord Tennyson, the Laureate, is announced for publication in the March number of the New Review.
